UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

SARAH ARRINGTON,	)	Case No.: 2:17-cv-01959-JCM-PAL
Plaintiff,	)
vs.	)
	)	[PROPOSED]
	)	STIPULATED PROTECTIVE
FRANKLIN COLLECTION SERVICE, INC., a	)	ORDER
Mississippi corporation,	)
Defendant.	)

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Plaintiff Sarah Arrington and Defendant Franklin Collection Service, Inc. (collectively, the “parties”), through their respective counsel of record, stipulate that this [Proposed] Stipulated Protective Order (“Protective Order”) shall govern all information and documents disclosed or produced in this case, including information and documents that may be disclosed or produced before this Protective Order is entered by the Court.

WHEREAS the parties to this case may be required to disclose to the other certain sensitive, personal, confidential and/or proprietary information and documents relating to the subject matter of this litigation, the unauthorized use or disclosure of which is likely to cause harm to the party producing such information or contravene an obligation of confidentiality to a third person or to a court.

Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the Protective

Order, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). The parties acknowledge that this Protective Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to treatment as confidential under applicable state or federal law. The parties further acknowledge that this Protective Order creates no entitlement to file confidential information under seal; the parties shall follow the applicable rules when seeking permission from the Court to file material under seal. The parties respectfully request that this Court enter the [Proposed] Stipulated Protective Order on the following terms:

I. DEFINITIONS

The following Definitions shall apply in this Order:

A. The term “Confidential Information” will mean and include information contained or disclosed in any materials, including documents, portions of documents, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions, trial testimony, deposition testimony, and transcripts of trial testimony and depositions, including data, summaries, and compilations derived therefrom that is deemed to be Confidential Information by any party to which it belongs.

B. The term “Materials” will include, but is not be limited to: documents; correspondence; memoranda; financial information; email; specifications; marketing plans; marketing budgets; customer information; materials that identify customers or potential customers; price lists or schedules or other matter identifying pricing; minutes; letters; statements; cancelled checks; contracts; invoices; drafts; books of account; worksheets; forecasts; notes of conversations; desk diaries; appointment books; expense accounts; recordings; photographs; motion pictures; sketches; drawings; notes of discussions with third parties; other notes; business reports; instructions; disclosures; other writings; records of website development; and internet archives.

C. The term “Counsel” will mean outside counsel of record, and other attorneys, paralegals, secretaries, and other support staff employed in the following law firms: Gordon & Rees, LLP and Gesund & Paillet, LLC.

II. LIMITATIONS ON DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

The following provisions shall apply in this litigation:

1. Each party to this litigation that produces or discloses any Materials, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admission, trial testimony, deposition testimony, and transcripts of trial testimony and depositions, or information that the producing party believes should be subject to this Protective Order may designate the same as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY.”

(a) Designation as “CONFIDENTIAL”: Any party may designate information as “CONFIDENTIAL” only if, in the good faith belief of such party and its Counsel, the unrestricted disclosure of such information could be harmful to the business or operations of such party.

(b) Designation as “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY”: Any party may designate information as “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY” only if, in the good faith belief of such party and its Counsel, the information is among that considered to be most sensitive by the party, including but not limited to trade secret or other confidential research, development, financial, customer related data or other commercial information.

2. In the event the producing party elects to produce Materials for inspection, no marking need be made by the producing party in advance of the initial inspection. For purposes of the initial inspection, all Materials produced will be considered as “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY,” and must be treated as such pursuant to the terms of this Order. Thereafter, upon selection of specified Materials for copying by the inspecting party, the producing party must, within a reasonable time prior to producing those Materials to the inspecting party, mark the copies of those Materials that contain Confidential Information with the appropriate confidentiality marking.

3. Whenever a deposition taken on behalf of any party involves the disclosure of Confidential Information of any party:

(a) the deposition or portions of the deposition must be designated as containing Confidential Information subject to the provisions of this Order; such designation

Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP
300 S. 4th Street, Suite 1550
Las Vegas, NV 89101

1 must be made on the record whenever possible, but a party may designate portions of depositions
2 as containing Confidential Information after transcription of the proceedings; a party will have
3 until thirty (30) days after receipt of the deposition transcript to inform the other party or parties
4 to the action of the portions of the transcript to be designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or 5 "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY." Until thirty (30) days after receipt of the 6 transcribed testimony, such testimony shall be treated by the parties as Confidential Information.

7 (b) the disclosing party will have the right to exclude from attendance at the 8 deposition, during such time as the Confidential Information is to be disclosed, any person other 9 than the deponent, Counsel (including their staff and associates), the court reporter, and the 10 person(s) agreed upon pursuant to paragraph 8, below; and

11 (c) The originals of the deposition transcripts and all copies of the deposition
12 must bear the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY," as 13 appropriate, and the original or any copy ultimately presented to a court for filing must not be 14 filed unless it can be accomplished under seal, identified as being subject to this Order, and 15 protected from being opened except by order of this Court.

16 4. All Confidential Information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 17 "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY" must not be disclosed by the receiving party to 18 anyone other than those persons designated within this Order and must be handled in the manner
19 set forth below, and in any event, must not be used for any purpose other than in connection with 20 this litigation, unless and until such designation is removed either by agreement of the parties, or 21 by order of the Court.

22 5. Information designated "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY" may be 23 viewed only by:

24 (a) Counsel (as defined in paragraph C, above) of the receiving party;
25 (b) Independent experts and stenographic and clerical employees associated 26 with such experts. Prior to receiving any Confidential Information of the producing party, the 27 expert must execute a copy of the "Agreement to Be Bound by Stipulated Protective Order," 28

Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP
300 S. 4th Street, Suite 1550
Las Vegas, NV 89101

1 attached hereto as Exhibit A. Counsel for the receiving party must retain executed copies of such 2 exhibits;

3 (c) The Court and any Court staff and administrative personnel;

4 (d) Any court reporter employed in this litigation and acting in that capacity;
5 and

6 (e) Any person indicated on the face of the document to be its author or co-
7 author, or any person identified on the face of the document as one to whom a copy of such 8 document was sent before its production in this action.

9 6. Information designated “CONFIDENTIAL” may be viewed only by the 10 individuals listed in paragraph 5, above, and by the additional individuals listed below:

11 (a) Party principals or executives who are required to participate in policy
12 decisions with reference to this action;

13 (b) Technical personnel of the parties with whom Counsel for the parties find
14 it necessary to consult, in the discretion of such Counsel, in preparation for trial of this action;
15 and

16 (c) Stenographic and clerical employees associated with the individuals 17 identified above.

18 7. All information that has been designated as “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR 19 COUNSEL ONLY” by the producing or disclosing party, and any and all reproductions of that 20 information, must be retained in the custody of the Counsel for the receiving party, except that 21 independent experts authorized to view such information under the terms of this Order may 22 retain custody of copies such as are necessary for their participation in this litigation, but only 23 during the course of this litigation. The designation does not apply to principals, employees, or 24 other agents of the parties who received information prior to and apart from this litigation that 25 was subsequently disclosed in this litigation as being either “CONFIDENTIAL” or 26 “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY”.

27 8. Before any Materials produced in discovery, answers to interrogatories, responses 28 to requests for admissions, deposition transcripts, or other documents which are designated as

Stricken by
the court

Confidential Information are filed with the Court for any purpose, the party seeking to file such material must seek permission of the Court to file the material under seal. Nothing in this order shall be construed as automatically permitting a party to file under seal. The party seeking leave of Court shall show “compelling reasons” (where the motion is more than tangentially related to the merits of the case) or “good cause” for filing under seal. See Ctr. For Auto Safety v. Chrysler Grp., LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1101 (9th Cir. 2016). Additionally, such party seeking to file under seal shall, within the applicable deadline, file a redacted, unsealed version of any motion, response or reply if such party is waiting for a ruling from the Court on filing an unredacted, sealed version of the same document. Further, no portion of the trial of the matter shall be conducted under seal.

9. Confidential Information and Materials designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY” shall be used solely for the prosecution or defense of this action.

10. At any stage of these proceedings, any party may object to a designation of Materials as Confidential Information. The party objecting to confidentiality must notify, in writing, Counsel for the producing party of the objected-to Materials and the grounds for the objection. ~~If the dispute is not resolved consensually between the parties within fourteen (14) days of receipt of such a notice of objections, the objecting party may move the Court for a ruling on the objection. In the event any party files a motion challenging the designation or redaction of information, the document shall be submitted to the Court, under seal, for an in-camera inspection.~~ The Materials at issue must be treated as Confidential Information, as designated by the producing party, until the Court has ruled on the objection or the matter has been otherwise resolved.

11. All Confidential Information must be held in confidence by those inspecting or receiving it. To the extent the Confidential Information has not been disclosed prior to and apart from this litigation, it must be used only for purposes of this action. If the Confidential Information was exchanged between the parties prior to and apart from this litigation for purposes of conducting their respective businesses, the parties may continue to use that otherwise

1 Confidential Information for that purpose. The parties may not distribute the Confidential
2 Information beyond those persons or entities that had received the Confidential Information prior
3 to this litigation. In addition, counsel for each party, and each person receiving Confidential
4 Information, must take reasonable precautions to prevent the unauthorized or inadvertent
5 disclosure of such information. If Confidential Information is disclosed to any person other than 6 a person authorized by this Order, the party responsible for the unauthorized disclosure must 7 immediately bring all pertinent facts relating to the unauthorized disclosure to the attention of the 8 other parties and, without prejudice to any rights and remedies of the other parties, make every 9 effort to prevent further disclosure by the party and by the person(s) receiving the unauthorized
10 disclosure.

11 12. No party will be responsible to another party for disclosure of Confidential
12 Information under this Order if the information in question is not labeled or otherwise identified
13 as such in accordance with this Order.

14 13. If a party, through inadvertence, produces any Confidential Information without 15 labeling or marking or otherwise designating it as such in accordance with this Order, the 16 producing party may give written notice to the receiving party that the Materials produced are 17 deemed Confidential Information, and that the Materials produced should be treated as such in 18 accordance with that designation under this Order. The receiving party must treat the Materials
19 as confidential, once the producing party so notifies the receiving party. If the receiving party has 20 disclosed the Materials before receiving the designation, the receiving party must notify the 21 producing party in writing of each such disclosure. Counsel for the parties will agree on a
22 mutually acceptable manner of labeling or marking the inadvertently produced Materials as
23 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY” – SUBJECT TO 24 PROTECTIVE ORDER.

25 14. Nothing within this Order will prejudice the right of any party to object to the 26 production of any discovery material on the grounds that the material is protected as privileged 27 or as attorney work product.
28

Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP
300 S. 4th Street, Suite 1550

1           15. Nothing in this Order will bar Counsel from rendering advice to their clients with 2 respect to this litigation and, in the course thereof, relying upon any information designated as
3 Confidential Information, provided that the contents of the information must not be disclosed.

4           16. This Order will be without prejudice to the right of any party to oppose
5 production of any information for lack of relevance or any other ground other than the mere
6 presence of Confidential Information. The existence of this Order must not be used by either
7 party as a basis for discovery that is otherwise improper under the Federal Rules of Civil 8 Procedure.

9           17. Information designated Confidential pursuant to this Order also may be disclosed
10 if: (a) the party or non-party making the designation consents to such disclosure; (b) the Court,
11 after notice to all affected persons, allows such disclosure; or (c) the party to whom Confidential
12 Information has been produced thereafter becomes obligated to disclose the information in 13 response to a lawful subpoena, provided that the subpoenaed party gives prompt notice to 14 Counsel for the party which made the designation, and permits Counsel for that party sufficient
15 time to intervene and seek judicial protection from the enforcement of this subpoena and/or entry
16 of an appropriate protective order in the action in which the subpoena was issued.

17           18. Nothing in this Confidentiality Order shall limit any producing party's use of its 18 own documents or shall prevent any producing party from disclosing its own Confidential
19 Information to any person. Such disclosures shall not affect any confidential designation made
20 pursuant to the terms of this Order so long as the disclosure is made in a manner which is 21 reasonably calculated to maintain the confidentiality of the information. Nothing in this Order
22 shall prevent or otherwise restrict Counsel from rendering advice to their clients, and in the 23 course thereof, relying on examination of stamped confidential information.

24           19. Within thirty (30) days of the final termination of this action, including any and 25 all appeals, Counsel for each party must purge all Confidential Information, whether on paper or 26 in electronic format from all machine-readable media on which it resides, and must either (a)
27 return all Confidential Information to the party that produced the information, including any 28 copies, excerpts, and summaries of that information, or (b) destroy same.

Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP
300 S. 4th Street, Suite 1550
Las Vegas, NV 89101

1           20.     The restrictions and obligations set forth within this Order will not apply to any
2 information that: (a) the parties agree should not be designated Confidential Information; (b) the 3 parties agree, or the Court rules, is already public knowledge; or (c) the parties agree, or the 4 Court rules, has become public knowledge other than as a result of disclosure by the receiving
5 party, its employees, or its agents, in violation of this Order.

6           21.     Any party may designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL –
7 FOR COUNSEL ONLY” any Materials that were produced during the course of this action
8 without such designation before the effective date of this Order, as follows:

9                   (a)     Parties to this action may designate such Materials by sending written
10 notice of such designation, accompanied by copies of the designated Materials bearing the 11 appropriate legend of “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY” to 12 all other parties in possession or custody of such previously undesignated Materials. Any party
13 receiving such notice and copies of designated Materials pursuant to this subparagraph shall 14 return to the producing party all undesignated copies of such Materials in its custody or 15 possession, or shall affix the appropriate legend to all copies of the designated Materials in its 16 custody or possession.

17                   (b)     Upon notice of designation pursuant to this paragraph, parties shall also:
18 (i) make no disclosure of such designated Materials or information contained therein except as 19 allowed under this Order; and (ii) take reasonable steps to notify any persons known to have 20 possession of such designated Materials or information of the effect of such designation under 21 this Order.

22                   (c)     All such designations must be made within thirty (30) days of the date of
23 this Order.

24           22.     Transmission by e-mail or facsimile is acceptable for all notification
25 purposes within this Order.

26           23.     This Order may be modified by agreement of the parties, subject to approval by
27 the Court.

28           24.     The Court may modify the terms and conditions of this Order for good

1 cause, or in the interest of justice, or on its own order at any time in these proceedings.

2 25. After termination of this action, the provisions of this Order shall continue to be
3 binding, except with respect to those documents and information that became a matter of public
4 record. ~~This Court retains and shall have continuing jurisdiction over the parties and recipients of~~
5 ~~Confidential Information and Materials designated as confidential for enforcement of the~~ 6 ~~provisions of this Order following termination of this litigation.~~

7 26. This Order shall govern pretrial proceedings only, and nothing set forth herein
8 prohibits the use at trial of any Confidential Information or affects the admissibility of any 9 evidence. The procedures to govern the use and disclosure of Confidential Information and the 10 redaction of any "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY"
